Dear Jim:

Jim Hagerty told me that you would be interested in having my book on GERMANY'S UNDERGROUND and I take the greatest pleasure in sending it to you. Unfortunately, the book, which was originally published by Macmillan, is out of print and copies are hard to come by. A private reprint of the book was made which is exactly like the original except that it does not contain the name of the publisher. My supply of the original has been so reduced that I have had to send my friends the reprint which I do with a foreword.

I hope you will get something out of it. Unfortunately, it is a rather tragic story of missed opportunities, frustration and failure for which we are all paying something of a price today.

Sincerely yours,

Allen W. Dulles
